Excellent - Good on you MITS!!
Yvonne was sensational!!!

Congratulations, that was wonderful. There was something for everyone to identify with & reflect on. I'm so happy that MITS had the courage to put in on. WELL DONE YVONNE - would never had the courage to come and see a production. As a first choice I'm glad this was it. You all did a fantastic job. You should all be proud. You all represented everything women stand for. Take a Bow " "

Hilarious, ecstatic, poignant, moving, liberating.
We LOVED IT!!!! The monks, the spunky placard boy, the drums, dancer & violinist. And, most importantly, the honest, brave & beautiful women who shared the stories of women-around-the-world, & their mysterious, miraculous VAGINAS.  Tamara (I wanna be a ~~hunny~~ MITS gal)!

Big Congrats for a controversial 'play'. Huge congrats for the 1 man... good on you for having the guts to brave female audiences. Difficult topics that no doubt challenge oneself. Well done to the girl with the long, red, straight hair... very impressive.

Now, if only my beautiful man was here to go home to, you guys turned us all on! Shell~xx

SAT. 9TH SEPT. 06

- FANTASTIC SCRIPT. MADE ME THINK. GREAT MORNING!

Astounding, now I know what makes a woman mean!!
Also women are mysterious, and the enticing corner of the curtain has been lifted.

I need a mental health day to get over the images
Mel has planted -jen xoxo.

"MENTAL" IMAGES? - MENTAL HEALTH DAY COMING - UP!
~~HER OTHER~~ <sup>aces</sup>

I was told it would be an education I think.

Vagina Monologues.

Friday, 15th September 2006.

All I can say is Speechless & Thankyou
(Lisa Potts (Sunset Mind & Body Clinic))
Thankyou Thankyou Thankyou Brilliant.

This play was fantastic. I laughed and I cried.

This is the second time I have seen it - and I would come back again & again. The lives of all the women touched my soul very deeply. I felt for them and their lives. Thankyou to all the Performers for living their lives - & I want for them
I wouldn't of been able to feel it.

Hilarious!!!

The monologue was personal and compelling. Every woman was represented and you were true to all of us. Thank you for bringing this to such a patriarchal city. You all make us proud to be women. Reclaim, respect and appreciation of our vagina. Love your beautiful, I hope you have to go professional and I want you have done a great job. Thank you. I brought my partner the first time and he loved it. Very thought provoking.
U GO GIRLS!!!!
