

Two households, both alike in dignity,
In fair Verona, where we lay our scene,
From ancient grudge break to new mutiny,
Where civil blood makes civil hands unclean.
From forth the fatal loins of these two foes
A pair of star-cross'd lovers take their life;
Whose misadventured piteous overthrows
Do with their death bury their parents' strife.
The fearful passage of their death-mark'd love,
And the continuance of their parents' rage,
Which, but their children's end, nought could remove,
Is now the two hours' traffic of our stage;
The which if you with patient ears attend,
What here shall miss, our toil shall strive to mend.

Director's Note

In January 2008 I decided to direct Romeo and Juliet and for it to be performed in this theatre for two reasons - to bring the community together and also to show the people of Mount Isa the wealth of talent there is in this town.

You will be watching a cast, many of whom in the early stages of rehearsals didn't truly understand the words they were reciting but enthusiastically embraced every challenge of what is Shakespeare. It is a cast that consists of actors of different ages, nationalities and stage experience. More importantly it is a cast that shows the family spirit with 8 members from 3 different families.

I have nothing but admiration and respect for the cast of Romeo and Juliet and am honoured to have directed them all.

Thank you and enjoy

- Maile
