Opportunity Knocks

by Judith Prior ~ Directed by Anthony Kassulke & Tyne James

Downstairs: An opp shop run by Daphne, Hazel, Rose, Wally, Herb, and Marty. Upstairs: Carol and Madge, “phone operators” by day, exotic dancers by night. Understandably, the dissimilar values and attitudes of the two very different lots of tenants, combined with the stream of weird and wonderful customers coming and going through the shop result in some very funny situations.

When the local councillors decide to run a recycled fashion parade and talent quest as a promotion to advertise their recycling policies, the girls upstairs are enlisted to help out with the opp shop’s entry, with hilarious consequences!

Directors’ Note

It has been a fun and memorable experience directing this play; Despite the many challenges which have marred the journey to opening night, the production has ripened splendidly thanks to the hard work and dedication of the cast and everyone involved behind the scenes. This show features many debutantes to the MITS stage, so we wish them all a broken leg (good luck), and hopefully we can con them into coming back for more. Finally thankyou to you, our patrons for supporting our theatre and we hope you have enjoy your evening with us at MITS.

- Tyne James and Anthony Kassulke
